The Aggies were mad clean through, statement: "Those Machinists might beat us." cried one of the Departmental Leaguers. "That would be terrible, for hen the best club would not represent the Capital in the big series against ichmond amateur champs.

The whole affair hinges around a protest of Tuesday's game submitted by Manager LeClair, of the Machinists. Mr. LeClair won his protest, for the reason that Umpire Betts virtually admitted in his version of the affair that a player on the Machinists club had been halted on third base when he should have been allowed to score. The protest of the Machinists' club on the result of the game with Agriculture, played August 21, reduced the following statements from the inter-
